"Can I better provide for my Family, than by spending a small portion of my income for a Policy on my Life ?"

38,000 Persons have Insured in the ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO. OF HARTFORD, CONN.,

And others are Daily Applying. THE principle of LIFE INSURANCE has become so well demonstrated, that it is hardly essary at this day to go into an argument in its support. Every individual who has a family or ar ones dependent upon his existence, is in fact, portant duties of life, in not guarding them against want, and protecting them from poverty, should death deprive them of his support and assistance. On an INSURANCE POLICY, procured at a small premium, a requisite sum is secured in case of death, to provide them with subsistence through life. Securing such a policy not only makes life pass more pleasantly, but will bring to the deathbed the happy consolation that your wife and children will not be left destitute, or to THE COLD, CHEERLESS SYMPATHY OF AN UNCHARITA-BLE WORLD. To those whose good impulses are moved to this accomplishment for their family's

THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO. is most cordially recommended for the carrying out of these desires. The Company has been in existence for FORTY EIGHT years, and now, with a Capital of over $6,000,000 00 stands as one of the solid monetary institutions of the nation and offers positively the best inducements for LIFE INSURANCE in the world. Over five hundred risks have been taken in the last twelve months upon the most influential citizens of North Carolina. Out of this number four have died, making $23,000 in cash paid over promptly to survivors; and but for this forethought and ACTION not one dollar would have been left of their estates for the benefit of their bereaved loved ones. After the 2nd year 50 per cent. Dividends is paid to Policy holders every year during Life, and at death the Policy is paid to survivors.

Risks on ages from 14 to 65 years are taken for a term of years or the WHOLE TERM OF LIFE on amounts from $1,000 to $10,000, and the rates are regulated according to age. THIS PROVISION CANNOT BE TAKEN FOR DEBT, BUT GOES TO THE FAMILY OR OTHER DEPEND-ENTS FOR THEIR SPECIAL USE AND SUP-PORT. Nothing can possibly be gained by delay in this duty and much may be lost. Of two courses, one of which may leave your family or dependent friends destitute, and the other ASSURES them a comfortable support at your decease; can there be a doubt which is to be chosen? Every one knows that if the pressure of the times bears hard upon a man in the fulness of his strength, it will be far more severe upon a woman and children left at such a conjuncture as this without resources or protector, and it is easier for a man to pay his premium than for his family to live without his aid and without means.

Set the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, the receipt and directions for making the same of the sake of suffering humanity. Set the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all with many a sob my pulses throb, And mine eyes-mine eyes the tear-drops pour While wearily I repeat the cry— "I return—I return no more!"

> When others sleep I wake and weep To think joys long past; And vials and pray for the happy day That shall bring repose at last. Sad memories fill my soul with gloom And mine eyes - mine eyes the tear-drops pour While despairingly I repeat the cry-

BY MES, ADELAIDE D. T. WHITNEY.

It was an old, distorted face-An uncouth visage, rough and wild; Yet from behind, with laughing grace, Peeped the fresh beauty of a child,

And so contrasting, fair and bright, It made me of fancy ask If half earth's wrinkled grimness might Be but the baby in the mask.

Behind gray hairs and furrowed brow, And withered look that life puts on, Each, as he wears it, comes to know How the child hides, and is not gone.

For, while the inexorable years To saddened features fit their mould, Beneath the work of time and tears Waits something that will not grow old!

And pain and petulance and care, And wasted hope and sinful stain, Shape the strange guise the soul doth wear, Till her young life looks forth again.

The beauty of this boyhood's smile-What human faith could find it now In yonder man of grief and gui'e-A very Cain, with branded brow? Yet, overlaid and hidden still

From the Buffalo Express. WEEPING WILLOW.

BY HERBERT H. MILLS.

O willow, why forever weep, As one who mourns an endless wrong? What hidden woe can lie so deep? What utter grief can last so long?

The Spring makes haste with step elate Your life and beauty to renew ; She even bids the roses wait, And gives her first sweet care to you.

The welcome red-breast folds his wing To pour for you his sweetest strain; To you the earliest blue birds sing Till all your light stems thrill again.

The sparrow trills his wedding song, And trust his tender broods to you ; Fair flow'ring vines, the Summer long, With clasp and kiss your beauty woo.

The sunshine drapes your limbs with light, The rain braids diamonds in your hair, The breeze makes love to you at night, Yet still you droop and still despair.

Beneath your boughs at fall of dew, By lovers' lips is softly told "The tale that all the ages through Has kept the world from growing old."

But still, though April's buds unfold, Or Summer sets the earth aleaf, Or Autumn trims your robes with gold, You sway and sigh in graceful grief.

Mourn on forever, unconcerned, And keep your secret, faithful tree, No heart in all the world can hold A sweeter grace than constancy.

THE FALL TRADE. -The preparations which our merchants have made for the Fall trade are at last becoming apparent in earnest to the people of this city, and those from the surrounding country who chance to visit us now. These preparations, though extensive, are not foolishly so; and while recognizing the fact that the people must be sup-

But in starting out, what we principally desired to direct attention to was the character of the stock on hand, and the preparations made for the Fall trade. If their selections have not been so extensive as could have been wished, certainly had the harvest been more abundant.
